Holiday Dinner Wrap-Up

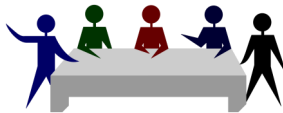

The 2022 Holiday Dinner was a wonderful success! Nearly 50 residents, with their favorite appetizers, desserts and drinks in hand, gathered together at the Clubhouse on December 17 for fellowship, great food, holiday cheer and holiday music (thanks Naoko!). The Social Committee—both new and old members—worked hard planning, setting up and decorating, cooking and serving the delicious ham, chicken, veggies, salad and rolls, and cleaning up. Special kudos to Mary Danielowich, Judi Ruscus and Anne Hiley for their efforts and Sue DiMicco, Barb Trice, and Susan Iannotti for their hands-on help and guidance. Thanks to everyone who jumped in to help with the setup and cleanup—it truly takes a village! Until the next event!

Did You Know? . . .WTBM Club Membership Perk

1. Members, you may check out rectangular tables only (maximum 2) and non-padded chairs (maximum 20) for an event held in your home.
2. You must sign them out and back in again in the notebook located on the ledge outside the office. They must be returned and put away correctly in the location from where they were taken.
3. Tables and chairs must be returned and checked in as soon as your event is over.
4. NO CHECKOUTS allowed on days when a private party is scheduled. Be sure to check the monthly calendar!

MSTU Special Community Meeting Tuesday January 3, 2022 7:00 pm

Please make an effort to attend this meeting and help plan for the future of our community's common areas.

Important Topics to be Discussed:

1. Review mowing contract and related expenses, and
2. Develop a 3-5 year budget plan
